Clause (a) of the question.

The information available in the Report on Public Instruction is embodied in the draft answer placed below.

2. Clause (b).

There is a secondary training class for masters attached to the Govt. College, ~~Madras~~ Mangalore. Besides there is also a Government Training School for Masters with higher and lower elementary training classes. In April 1927 the Government sanctioned the opening of an additional higher elementary section in the above training ~~section~~ school. There are thus 1 secondary, 2 higher elementary and 1 lower elementary training classes for masters all under Government management. As regards mistresses there is a Government training school with higher and lower elementary training classes at Mangalore. Besides there is a Mission Training school - St. Ann's Training School - which according to the latest report on Public Instruction has secondary and higher elementary training classes. The total number of classes for mistresses is therefore as follows:

1 secondary, higher elementary and 1 lower elementary.
